Summary of changes to UVM's animal care program

In an effort to reduce regulatory burden, we made the following changes in 2019

Change in continuing review requirements – The IACUC no longer requires annual continuing review for non-USDA covered species. Triennial (de novo) reviews are still a requirement – effective May 2019.

Change in frequency of occupational health – Animal handler occupational health and safety questionnaires were changed from an annual to a triennial requirement – effective September 2019.

Change in length of designated review grace period – Members have one business day to review and call for submissions to go to full committee for review. Effective December 2019

One to Many protocol concept – The IACUC now adopted the policy of having one protocol to cover projects under multiple funding sources. Effective December 2019.
