Hello Dr. McBride.

ILS has recently had a change in ownership that I need to report to USDA. Are you the appropriate point of contact for that notification, or should I direct it elsewhere?

Thanks very much for any insight.

Regards,

(b) (6), (b) (7)(C)

Good morning.

Your file has not been updated yet, but please don't be concerned. I just added another note to the record that you have submitted it on time and are waiting for renewal processing.

As you can imagine, we have MANY folks in the same status as you – waiting for USDA to catch up on handling and processing mail and subsequently updating records during these difficult COVID times.

Thanks,
