

IITRI Three dogs in Category E for Fiscal Year 2020

The dogs in Category E were enrolled in a toxicity study. The purpose of the study was to determine deleterious effects of a drug before the drug was introduced to the market for studies involving humans. Anesthetics or analgesics could not be used because they would confound and potentially mask the effects of the drug.