

One exception was approved by the IACUC during this period, for dogs to be fasted for up to 40 hours at each of five diet changes for a biomarker evaluation in a congestive heart failure study. This affected 9 dogs.