

- Sheep are housed in a metabolic stanchion not more than 72 h during post-op recovery before returning to the husbandry room.
- Nonhuman primate cages will not be spray clean after delivery of newborn baby to decrease the stress for 5 days. The collection pan will clean as scheduled.
- Group 6 nonhuman primates will be housed in group 5 cages for 5 days during the cardiovascular function assessment and glucose tolerance test.
- Pair housing for time breeding of nonhuman primates will be done in a side-by-side cage for 5 days.
- During the floor renovation, the group 6 animals were housed in the group 5 cages during the project for 2 months. There were no psychological and adverse medical events observed.