Legal Name: University of California Irvine

Inspection No: 2016090000818043

Facility Name: UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, IRVINE

Description: One pig on an approved protocol had ulcerations along his back with redness and hyperpigmentation above and below the ulcerations. The facility representative stated they developed in response to thermal injury due to electric warmers used during surgery to support temperature regulation. Initially a water circulating heating pad was used but was replaced with the electric heating pad due to water leakage.
