I did recall an e-mail. If you received one with the inspection report attached, that is the correct e-mail.

Because your response to the e-mail serves as documentation of receipt and signature, could you respond to the original e-mail again and just state you have received the inspection report dated 13FEB2019?

Sorry for the hassle but our SOP states there shall be no other information in the response, except maybe a Hello or Thank you.

Also, I do wish to speak with you on a few topics. What time of day would be best to speak with you? My schedule is pretty tight this week, but I can make time on Friday or Monday. Let me know.

Hi, Dr. McFadden! It was wonderful to meet you the other week.

I received a recall from you for this email; is this the final report or is there another report pending?

Thank you!
Dr. Selby
