2.33(b)(3) ATTENDING VETERINARIAN AND ADEQUATE VETERINARY CARE.

Animal id numbers for animals found sick or injured are not being recorded on the recipient monitoring daily logs. Daily observation sheets should include the specific animal id number. This helps to prevent possible error in identification and the possibility of treating the wrong animal.

Animal health records should include whether or not the attending veterinarian was contacted and consulted about the treatment. Medications recorded should also include the route of administration.
