Summary of exceptions to the Animal Welfare Act

California State University, San Bernardino

Department of Biology

Facility # 93-R-0566, Customer # 1846

The following IACUC approved exception to the Animal Welfare Act, and explained by the Principal Investigator, is in place for all kangaroo rats housed in the Biology Department of CSUSB for purposes of research and teaching:

No water bottles or watering devices are provided, since it is well documented that kangaroo rats derive sufficient water from dietary sources.
